

Building a Dynamic Team

L.A. CO-OP LAB
not business as usual.

With your team members, identify your shared bottom-line values and write them in the center circle.

In the outer layers of the circle, list the qualities that you came up with in your personal sheets for each individual team member.

Team Discussion 1

From your team, whose skillsets and qualities complement one another? Is there a skillset or area that is under-represented or over-represented?

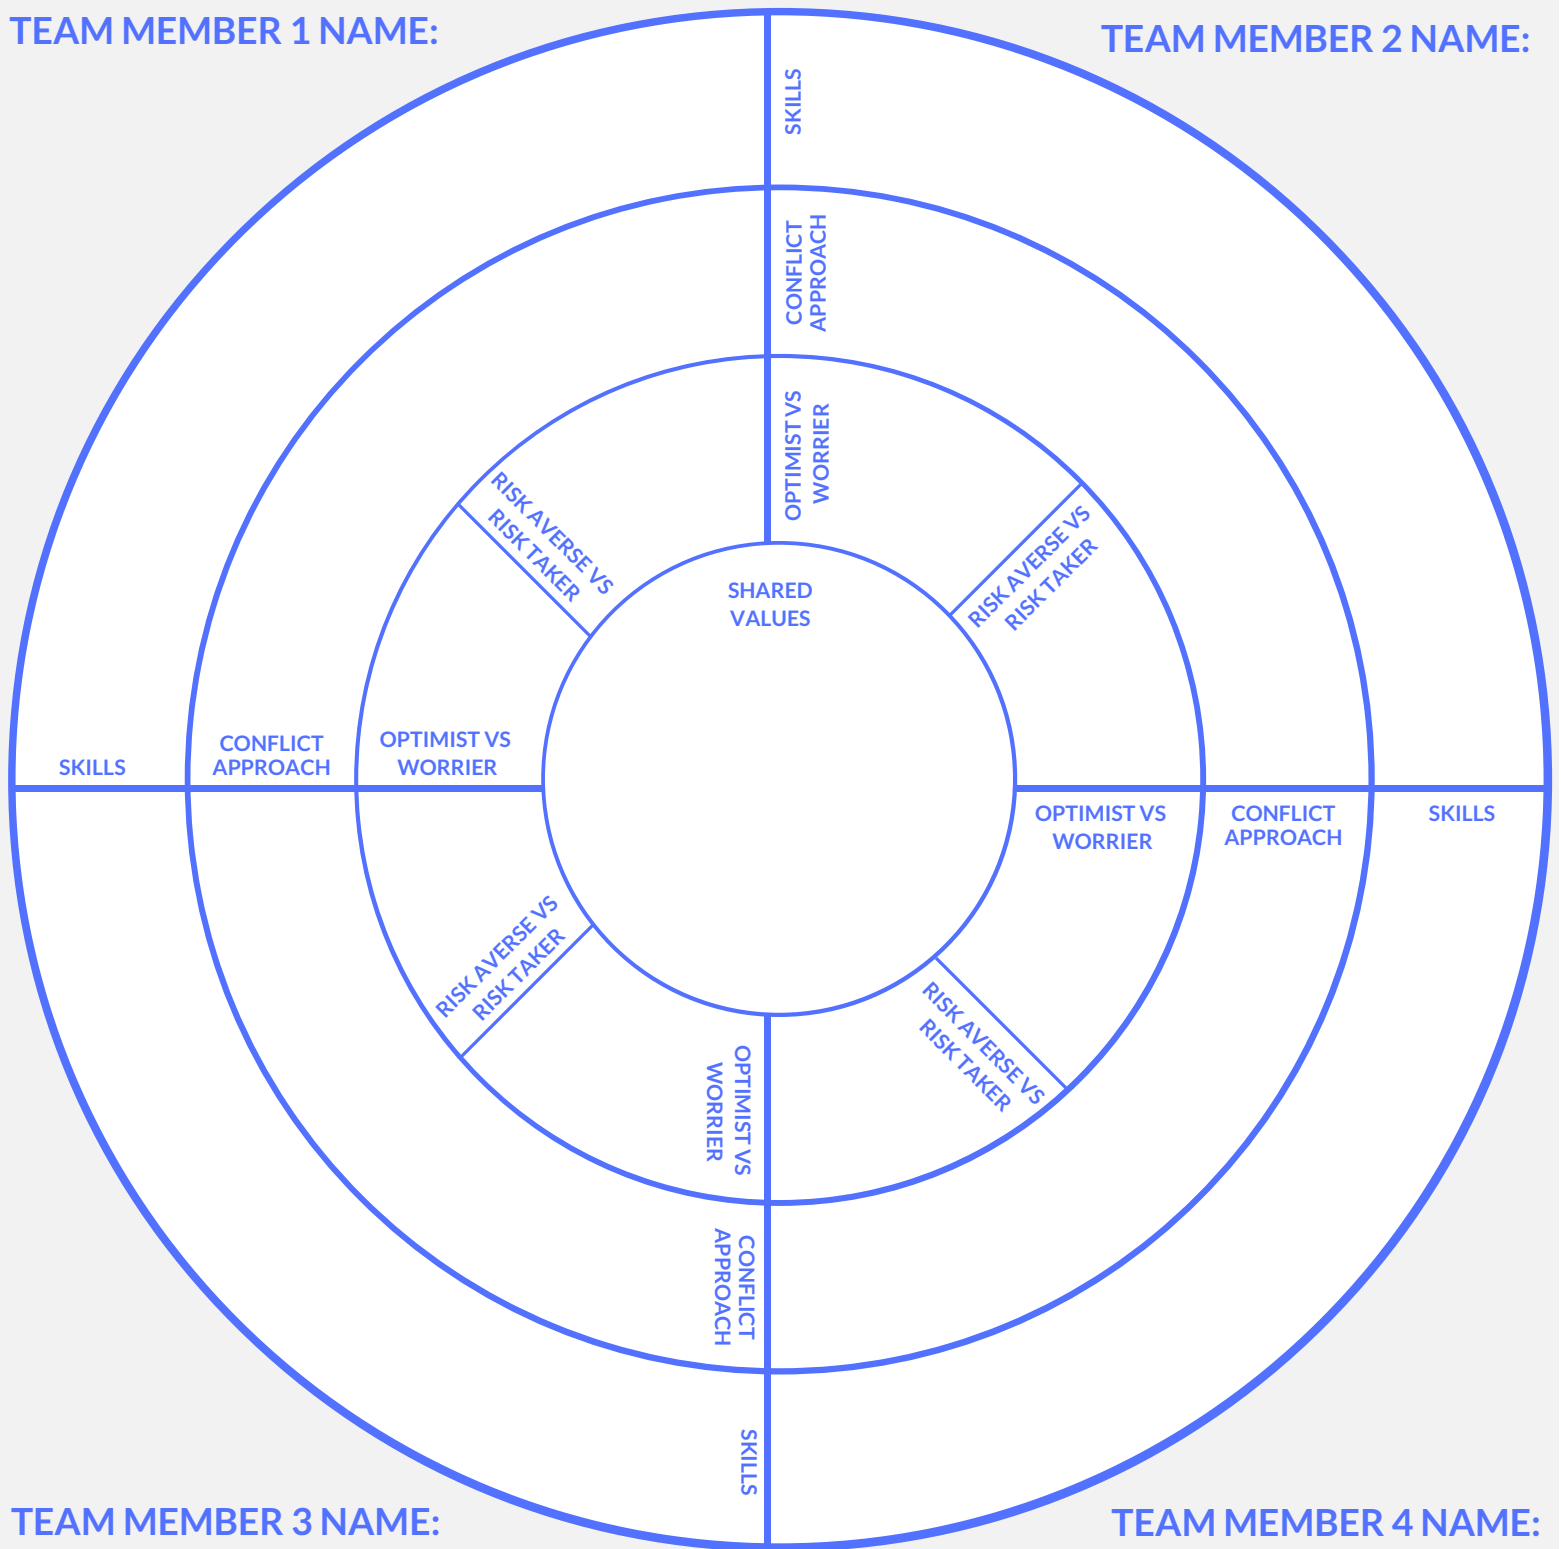

Team Discussion 2

Take turns consulting your fake team with these questions as they relate to your real-life co-op teams:

What is your plan for building your team? How will you find them? If you already have a team, is there balance?
